INHUMAN CRUELTY. - Several weeks since, a half idiotic boy, aged between 16 and 17 years, left this city and walked to Indianapolis, in search of work. Arriving at his destination his search for employment was unsuccessful, started to walk back. On Friday last he story, he met six men, who at first treated him kindly. They finally took him into an empty warehouse, and after stripping him, blacked him from head to foot. These ruffians then procured a box, placed the unfortunate boy in it, nailed the cover down, and in order to make it more secure, fastened two iron hoops around

The men then took the box to the Adams Express office, and after having it marked "H. C. Lord, Esq., Cincinnati, Ohio," stated to the agent that that it contained "live stock," and they wished it handled with care. The agent after weighing the hox, stated that the charges to Cincinnati would be $1.50. This amount the men paid, and immediately left. Soon the down train came thundering along, and when it stopped at the station the box containing the poor boy was given in charge of the messenger. Fortunately there was very little freight in the car, and the box containing "live stock" was placed near the centre. Asbout an hour after the train left Acon, the Express Messenger's attention was attracted by a noise coming from the direction where the box had been deposited. He was soon satisfied that the noise came from the box said to contain "live stock," and procuring a hatchet, he after considerable difficulty, succeeded in opening it. To his utter astonish ment he found in it a human being greatly exhausted, and gasping for breath, the box being perfectly air-tight. The boy in a few moments recovered, and related the story to the Messenger. He was kindly cared for, brought to this city, and was at the Adams Express office most of the day on Saturday. The boy, whose name we have been requested, for the sake of his mother, to suppress, told the circumstances of the affair to Mr. H. C. Lord, President of the I. & C. R. R., to whom the boy was consigned, and that gentleman immediately telegraphed to Acton, requiring every one connected with the road at that point to come to this city at once. Mr. Lord is determined to have a full investigation made, and should the guilty ones be found out, they will, no doubt, receive the punishment which they so richly deserve.

There is no doubt that had the messenger not discovered that the box contained a human being, the boy would have been suflocated to death before the train arrived in this city .-Cincinnati Gazette.

AN EXCITING WHISKEY SEIZURE. - A singular disclosure was made on Sunday night by officers connected with the Fourth Internal Revenue District. Collector Bailey recently learned that the distillery of Messrs. England & Evans, in avenue A., near Twentieth street, which had been seized by the U.S. Marshal for violations of the Internal Revenue law, was running in the interest of the owners, although a Deputy Marshal was in charge. As this was a direct violation of the law, Collector Bailey determined to seize the premises, and Col. Porter and several men were sent up on Sunday night to take possession.

The adventure proved exciting, and at one time promised to result in blood shed. In forcing open the rear outer gate, a man was found on guard who threatened to fire. The gate was forced in a few seconds, and on entering the rear passage of the distillery the revenue officials were confronted by several armed men, one of whom declared himself to be a U. S. Deputy Marshal, and said that he would shoot the first man who attempted to approach. The officials went back to call the police, except Col. Porter, who approached the men himself, armed with a bowie-knife and revolver, at the same time notifying the Deputy Marshal and aids that he should return their fire. This strategy proved successful, for, while engaged in a parley with Col. Porter, their backs were so turned that the rest of the Colonel's force, with two policemen, came in unawares. Upon a statement of the affair, one of the policemen decided to assist Colonel Porter, because he recognized several men in the place as well-known criminals. Colonel Porter found the still in operation, with a large amount of whiskey in the cistern. It took three hours to find the connection, which extended to the rectifying establishment of Marcus Hanlon & Co.—N. Y. Post.

struction' with the tollowing impressive figure: 'Mr. President, my colleague has spoken of a column-the column of congressional reconstruction—and has said that 'it is not hewn of a single stone, but is composed of many blocks. Sir, I think he is right. Its foundation is the hard flint stone of military rule, brought the quarries of Austria, and upon that foundation rests the block from Africa, and it is thence carried to its topmost point with fragments of our broken institutions. That column will not stand. It will fall, and its architects will be crushed beneath its ruins. In its stead the people will uphold thirty-seven stately and beautiful columns, pure and white as Parian marble, upon which shall rest forever the grand structure of the American Union.'

Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety.— Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise.
